Mental Illness & Intellectual Disability: Guidelines for First Responders

Presented by Dr. Robert Fletcher,
Founder and CEO of the National Association of Dually Diagnosed (NADD)
June 12, 2014 1:00-4:00pm
Solano County Health & Human Services
2101 Courage Dr. Fairfield Multi-Purpose Room

This free training will provide critical information for both 'first responders' and anyone working with individuals with dual diagnosis (Mental Illness and Intellectual Disability) –

- ✓ Characteristics of Individuals with MI/ID
- ✓ Guidelines for Responding to Victims with ID
- ✓ Communication Strategies and Intervention
- ✓ Crisis Management and De-Escalation

Whether you're encountering an individual in a hospital emergency room, in the criminal justice system, or any other crisis situation, this training will provide key strategies for working with dually diagnosed (MI/ID) individuals in the community

Register for this training here or at nbrc.net
