

North Bay Regional Center

Strategic Goals

Individuals are more self-reliant and achieve greater independence

Individuals have greater economic influence through employment

More individuals make decisions about their lives

More families are supported in achieving healthy home environments as a result of advocacy for resources

Individuals and families have greater access to community resources as a result of advocacy