

From Reality TV To The Real World

Helping Youth Discover What It Really Takes To Succeed

Learn how we helped nearly 300 clients with significant intellectual disabilities find competitive jobs in just 2 years using our real world approach!

About The Training:

From Reality TV To The Real World is a strategic approach in assisting a younger generation to channel youthful ideologies, harness raw potential, and distinguish fact from fiction of what leads to success. Utilizing integrated services, participants will gain the necessary tools to aide clients in removing barriers, embracing individuality and diversity as well as gaining the confidence needed to build a solid foundation for the modern workplace.

Date: April 8, 2015

Time: 9:00 am to 4:00 pm

Location: Department Of Rehabilitation
50 D Street

Santa Rosa CA 95404

Conference Room 410 A & B

Contact: Valerie McKamey at

Valerie.A.McKamey@Dor.ca.gov

Ph: (707) 576-2243

Polishing
the professional

What you'll Learn:

- Comprehensive overview and understanding of what job development is and what it is not
- First Things, First.- A complete and thorough assessment is the key to success
- Developing and implementing a successful marketing plan
- Using and leveraging social media
- Business development and relationship building
- Understanding the Americans with Disabilities Act and requesting a reasonable accommodation
- The Workforce Investment Act and how it affects your job of finding work for individuals with disabilities
- The purpose of and accessing the EEOC and other regulatory agencies
- Entrepreneurial job development