Sandra Robinson, Ph.D. is an Inclusion Specialist. For the past 30 years, Dr. Robinson has been an educator and administrator in the public school system. She has been the Director of Special Education in two different districts. She has taught at the university level in the teacher preparation program. Dr. Robinson has trained groups of educators, administrators, and parents, and volunteers in the areas of positive behavior techniques, teaching strategies, crisis intervention, and Special Education Law. She brings her extensive experience in special education to faith communities. It is her desire to assist churches of all denominations to create Champions Clubs where children with special needs and their families are included in all aspects of church life.
